Editorial Review

Review

"BONUS: Beautiful enough to be left on the coffee table. BUMMER: So beautiful you may be demoralized by your efforts." -- The (Colorado Springs, CO) Gazette

"One of the strong points, in my estimation, is the author's examples of photos done right and done almost right. The comparisons are vivid learning experiences... If you enjoy capturing excellent outdoor experiences with excellent digital photos you'll value the information that Martin shares. Considering buying or upgrading your digital camera? [Then] consider this book-required reading... Martin tackles the complexities of going digital and, for the most part, dissects the information in understandable terms." -- TNS Communications

"There's a wealth of practical advice in this field guide for travel and adventure photographers." -- Lexington (KY) Herald-Leader

"Whether you're among the point-and-shoot masses or more advanced, [Digital Photography Outdoors] will have lasting value. Almost everyone packs a digital camera on outdoor adventures these days. Do yourself a favor and read this before your next outing." -- The Idaho Falls Post Register

"Whether you're among the point-and-shoot masses or more advanced, the book will have lasting value." -- The Sacramento Bee

"[The] premier instructional manual and guide for the use of digital cameras in taking memorable and dramatic photographs in the field... Digital Photography Outdoors provides digital camera users with a wealth of invaluable tips on photographing outdoor subjects in all manner of field conditions. Superbly organized and presented, practical and portable, Digital Photography Outdoors is a welcome and enthusiastically recommended addition to personal, professional, and community library photography instructional reference collections." -- The Midwest Book Review
