About the Author

Marie-Anne LecoEUR is a French woman who is now based in Jersey, in the Channel Islands. Growing up in her native France, she got used to seeing well-dressed and confident women. This spurred her on to write her books to share her advice and tips to those women who need a bit of help in the style department. She also writes a blog where she gives advice on chic and elegance, teaching women what to wear for their body shape and size. As you never get a second chance at making a first impression, she knows the importance of getting it right for all occasions. Drawing from her life in France, she offers tips on French style and gives away the secrets of French chic.
