Editorial Review

Review

"At a lecture entitled Liquid Space, given at Princeton in 2009 and transcribed in the book Forces of Nature, Ito describes how he has spent the last decade working against the generic grid imposed on our buildings and cities by 20th-century modernism." -- The Guardian

About the Author

Jessie Turnbull is an architect in training practicing in New York. Born and brought up in rural Scotland, she studied womenswear design at London College of Fashion before completing her Bachelor of Arts in Architecture at the University of Cambridge. Upon graduation she received the prestigious Daiwa Anglo Japanese Scholarship and spent two years living in Tokyo, studying Japanese, and working for the internationally renowned young architecture firm Atelier Bow-Wow.
