Le Silence de la Mer et Autre Recits (French Edition) By Jean Bruller Vercors

Sous l'Occupation, une famille française est contrainte de loger Werner von Ebrennac, un officier allemand : c'est un homme de grande culture, souriant, sensible et droit. Pourtant, soir après soir, le nouveau maître du pays ne trouvera que le silence obstiné de ses hôtes, un silence au creux duquel apparaît toute "la vie sous-marine des sentiments cachés, des désirs et des pensées qui luttent". Le Silence de la mer, devenu un classique traduit dans le monde entier, loué, étudié, adapté au cinéma, est le premier grand livre de la Résistance où Jean Bruller, alias Vercors, a su dépeindre l'amertume et le désespoir de ces années de "catacombes", tout en catalysant avec force les vertus d'un humanisme conscient de ses devoirs.
