Review

"Their work has been regarded as some of the premiere titles that have led the way for this growing phenomenon of gritty tales." --Urban Book Source, praise for the authors

About the Author

These two New York Times best-selling authors hit the scene at the ripe age of 17 when they were discovered by Carl Weber. Born and raised in the most notorious neighborhoods in Flint, Michigan it was only natural for the pair to write about the street life they knew all too well. During their freshmen year in college they both received national publishing deals and have not looked back since. With smash hit novels "The Cartel 1 and 2" which debuted on the New York time best sellers list, they have solidified themselves as two of the best in their genre, together or apart. With a roster of sixteen published novels and a hefty ghostwriting resume, they have made successful careers for themselves.
