The Red Book: Vertebrates in Israel By Amit Dolev

The Jewish People Policy Planning Institute was established in 2002, as an independent non-profit organization. The Institute examines the challenges, threats and opportunities facing the Jewish People, in order to guarantee continuity and prosperity, in an effort to develop a strategic process for global policy planning. Dynamics are evaluated by mapping main trends among the Jewish People. The Institute works to enhance the interface between policy planning and policy making, through agenda setting, developing and analyzing policy options.
