Brick Lane By Monica Ali

Text is in Swedish. Monica Ali's gorgeous first novel is the deeply moving story of one woman, Nazneen, born in a Bangladeshi village and transported to London at age eighteen to enter into an arranged marriage. Already hailed by the London Observer as "one of the most significant British novelists of her generation," Ali has written a stunningly accomplished debut about one outsider's quest to find her voice. What could not be changed must be borne. And since nothing could be changed, everything had to be borne. This principle ruled her life. It was mantra, fettle, and challenge. Nazneen's inauspicious entry into the world, an apparent stillbirth on the hard mud floor of a village hut, imbues in her a sense of fatalism that she carries across continents when she is married off to Chanu, a man old enough to be her father. Nazneen moves to London and, for years, keeps house, cares for her husband, and bears children, just as a girl from the village is supposed to do. But gradually she is transformed by her experience, and begins to question whether fate controls her or whether she has a hand in her own destiny. Motherhood is a catalyst -- Nazneen's daughters chafe against their father's traditions and pride -- and to her own amazement, Nazneen falls in love with a young man in the community. She discovers both the complexity that comes with free choice and the depth of her attachment to her husband, her daughters, and her new world. While Nazneen journeys along her path of self-realization, her sister, Hasina, rushes headlong at her life, first making a "love marriage," then fleeing her violent husband. Woven through the novel, Hasina's letters from Dhaka recount a world of overwhelming adversity. Shaped, yet not bound, by their landscapes and memories, both sisters struggle to dream -- and live -- beyond the rules prescribed for them.

From reader reviews:

Stephanie Cromwell:

As people who live in the particular modest era should be revise about what going on or details even knowledge to make these keep up with the era which is always change and advance. Some of you maybe can update themselves by looking at books. It is a good choice for you but the problems coming to anyone is you don't know which you should start with. This Brick Lane is our recommendation to make you keep up with the world. Why, since this book serves what you want and wish in this era.

Orlando Bush:

Information is provisions for those to get better life, information these days can get by anyone with everywhere. The information can be a know-how or any news even a concern. What people must be consider while those information which is inside the former life are difficult to be find than now is taking seriously which one is acceptable to believe or which one the particular resource are convinced. If you have the unstable resource then you have it as your main information we will see huge disadvantage for you. All those possibilities will not happen inside you if you take Brick Lane as the daily resource information.

Bethel Stockton:

Reading can called imagination hangout, why? Because when you find yourself reading a book particularly book entitled Brick Lane your brain will drift away trough every dimension, wandering in every aspect that maybe unfamiliar for but surely can be your mind friends. Imaging every single word written in a e-book then become one contact form conclusion and explanation in which maybe you never get just before. The Brick Lane giving you one more experience more than blown away your thoughts but also giving you useful info for your better life with this era. So now let us teach you the relaxing pattern is your body and mind will be pleased when you are finished reading it, like winning a casino game. Do you want to try this extraordinary shelling out spare time activity?

Kendrick Hardee:

As a pupil exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library or even make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just tiny students that has reading's heart or real their interest. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to the library. They go to there but nothing reading seriously. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring and also can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country.

Therefore this Brick Lane can make you feel more interested to read.
