Jesus Calling for Graduates By Sarah Young

You just graduated. Now what?

Hear what Jesus has to say to you during this major life transition.

During times of transition and unknown next steps, it is more important than ever to cling to the promises of God and to tune your ear to hear what Jesus has to say. Jesus Calling® for Graduates provides guidance and encouragement for new grads as they venture into the next phase of their lives.

Follow along with 150 devotions divided topically—on topics such as attitude, discerning God’s will, identity, and worth—that are most applicable and relevant to your life now—a little bigger, a little more exciting, a little scarier—and lean in close to hear what Jesus is saying to you today: words of hope, encouragement, and reassurance of His unending love.

Sandra Wright:

As a college student exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library or to make summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just small students that has reading's soul or real their leisure activity. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring along with can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Jesus Calling for Graduates can make you experience more interested to read.
