Editorial Review

Review

"This new book will serve not only as a guide to aid collection development but also as a handy readers' advisory for the uninitiated librarian. It will be a staple resource for public libraries but will inform the lighter reading sections of academic libraries also." - ARBA

"This resource will be equally helpful for collection development and readers' advisory, both for libraries just starting out and those with established graphic-novel collections." - Booklist Online

"This is helpful to those of us who don't have a keen aficionado in this area. Recommended." - Teacher Librarian

"Elizabeth F. S. Kalen brings an expert opinion on how best to manage manga in the modern library, including outlining important titles. Mostly Manga is an excellent reference for any librarian who has the manga requests piling up." - Midwest Book Review
