

Architecture and Interior Design Through the 18th Century: An Integrated History

By Buie Harwood, Bridget May, Curt Sherman

Download now

Read Online ➔

Architecture and Interior Design Through the 18th Century: An Integrated History By Buie Harwood, Bridget May, Curt Sherman

Exceptionally comprehensive, this single- source reference allows readers to compare and contrast architecture, interior design, interior architectural features, design details, motifs, furniture, space planning, color, lighting, textiles, interior surface treatments, and decorative accessories through many centuries--from antiquity to the 18th century--from the many regions of the world. Additionally, it includes later interpretations of architecture, interiors, and furniture to illustrate the evolution of each stylistic influence. Each period is placed within a conceptual, cultural, historical, and social context, and the broad range of examples depicts high-style and domestic structures and furnishings that reflect residential, commercial, and institutional projects. The volume is extensively illustrated and features many illustrations diagrammed with explanatory notes highlighting specific design features. Cultural Precedents. Oriental (China, Japan). Antiquity (Egypt, Greece, Rome). Middle Ages (Early Christian, Byzantine, Islamic, Romanesque, Gothic). Renaissance (Italian Renaissance, Spanish Renaissance, French Renaissance, English Renaissance, American Colonial: England, American Colonial: Spanish, American Colonial: France, American Colonial: Germany, Holland). Baroque (European Baroque, Louis XIV, English Restoration). Rococo (Regency & Louis XV, Neo-Pal & English Georgian, American Georgian). Early Neoclassic (Louis XVI, French Provincial, Late Georgian, American Federal). For interior design practitioners, furniture designers, design consultants, design manufacturers, and theater and film set designers, as well as those in the related fields of art history, architecture, material culture, museum studies, and history. Also of interest to historical societies, preservation groups, crafts people, design journalists, and the lay person with interest in design.

↓ Download Architecture and Interior Design Through the 18th ...pdf

📖 Read Online Architecture and Interior Design Through the 18t ...pdf

Architecture and Interior Design Through the 18th Century: An Integrated History

By Buie Harwood, Bridget May, Curt Sherman

Architecture and Interior Design Through the 18th Century: An Integrated History By Buie Harwood, Bridget May, Curt Sherman

Exceptionally comprehensive, this single- source reference allows readers to compare and contrast architecture, interior design, interior architectural features, design details, motifs, furniture, space planning, color, lighting, textiles, interior surface treatments, and decorative accessories through many centuries--from antiquity to the 18th century--from the many regions of the world. Additionally, it includes later interpretations of architecture, interiors, and furniture to illustrate the evolution of each stylistic influence. Each period is placed within a conceptual, cultural, historical, and social context, and the broad range of examples depicts high-style and domestic structures and furnishings that reflect residential, commercial, and institutional projects. The volume is extensively illustrated and features many illustrations diagrammed with explanatory notes highlighting specific design features. Cultural Precedents. Oriental (China, Japan). Antiquity (Egypt, Greece, Rome). Middle Ages (Early Christian, Byzantine, Islamic, Romanesque, Gothic). Renaissance (Italian Renaissance, Spanish Renaissance, French Renaissance, English Renaissance, American Colonial: England, American Colonial: Spanish, American Colonial: France, American Colonial: Germany, Holland). Baroque (European Baroque, Louis XIV, English Restoration). Rococo (Regency & Louis XV, Neo-Pal & English Georgian, American Georgian). Early Neoclassic (Louis XVI, French Provincial, Late Georgian, American Federal). For interior design practitioners, furniture designers, design consultants, design manufacturers, and theater and film set designers, as well as those in the related fields of art history, architecture, material culture, museum studies, and history. Also of interest to historical societies, preservation groups, crafts people, design journalists, and the lay person with interest in design.

Architecture and Interior Design Through the 18th Century: An Integrated History By Buie Harwood, Bridget May, Curt Sherman Bibliography

- Sales Rank: #275831 in Books
- Published on: 2001-12-28
- Original language: English
- Number of items: 1
- Dimensions: 11.12" h x 1.45" w x 8.48" l, 3.27 pounds
- Binding: Hardcover
- 576 pages

 Download Architecture and Interior Design Through the 18th ...pdf

 Read Online Architecture and Interior Design Through the 18t ...pdf

Download and Read Free Online Architecture and Interior Design Through the 18th Century: An Integrated History By Buie Harwood, Bridget May, Curt Sherman

Editorial Review

From the Back Cover

THE most complete survey of architecture, interiors, furniture, and decorative arts.

This 2 volume set spans the ages from antiquity to the present. A complete, integrated, and interdisciplinary reference for:

- the built environment
- space planning
- color
- lighting
- interior design
- interior architectural features
- design details
- motifs
- furniture
- space planning
- color
- lighting
- textiles
- interior surface treatments
- decorative accessories

The unique scope allows comparison in all areas of design through the centuries. Narrative and graphics interweave design analysis with art and architectural history.

Innovations:

- Graphic material features a wide diversity of illustrations, some common and some less well known.
- Design diagramming highlights major design features allowing the reader to make visual connections between the content.
- List of important buildings and interiors and important design practitioners is included to assist in additional study.
- Color photographs serve as a needed resource for period study.
- Later interpretations of the stylistic illustrations from subsequent centuries provide a new dimension to the study of design history.
- Extensive reference list, glossary, and index offer flexibility and ease of use.

Excerpt. © Reprinted by permission. All rights reserved.

This book was written primarily to fulfill a need in interior design education and in related design disciplines. We are not aware of another book that allows the reader to compare and contrast architecture, interiors, furniture, and decorative arts through many centuries. We have tried to interweave a design analysis language with that of art and architectural history. Our intent is to provide a flexible, easy-to-use, and well-organized resource for those with a variety of interests. An extensive reference list, glossary, and index are included.

Our primary audience is students in interior design programs. However, this book will also be of use to interior design practitioners, furniture designers, design consultants, design manufacturers, and theater/film set designers, as well as to students and professionals in the related fields of art history, architecture, material culture, museum studies, and history. It may also be of interest to historical/ preservation societies, craftspeople, design journalists, and laypeople interested in design.

The development of this book evolved over a number of years through our college teaching experiences. We, and our colleagues, were continually frustrated by the lack of adequate resources to support the desired content, context, and comprehensiveness of design history. All of our shared ideas were realized here as we worked on the scope, organization, and presentation of this material. We hope that this effort fulfills a need for you and future generations who find the study of design history exciting. ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

This book has been an enormous endeavor and a formidable challenge. We would like to offer our grateful acknowledgment to those who provided valuable assistance though its development. Special thanks to each of you for all of your wonderful contributions!

To our Prentice Hall/Pearson Education support team who had faith in us and made the book happen: Vern Anthony, Judith Casino, Elizabeth Sugg, Linda Zuk, Denise Brown, and Patsy Fortney.

To our many students who inspired us to undertake this project: those who studied with Buie at Virginia Commonwealth University, the University of Texas at Austin, and North Texas State University; those who studied with Bridget at Marymount University, the University of Georgia at Athens, and Mississippi University for Women; and those who studied with Curt at Winthrop University, San Diego State University, and Washington State University.

To our educational institutions who in various ways supported our efforts: Virginia Commonwealth University, Marymount University, and Winthrop University.

To our friends who offered their expertise, support, resources, interest, and listening ears: Alice Burmeister, Peg De Lamiter, Laura Durfresne, George Fuller, Alan Huston, Dianne Jackman, Philip Moody, Ardis Rewerts, Nancy Templeman, and our family within the Interior Design Educators Council (IDEC).

To our special library resource friends: Carl Vuncannon and his staff at the Bernice Bienenstock Furniture Library in High Point, North Carolina, who opened that resource to us; Suzanne Freeman at the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts in Richmond, who provided a wealth of information; and Ray Bonis in Special Collections, Cabell Library at Virginia Commonwealth University, who provided valuable assistance.

To our individual family members who offered ongoing support, listened to complaints, and provided expertise when needed: Judy Sherman Endeman, Frith Harwood, Robert Harwood, Hope Harwood Liebke, Dottie May, and Henry May. To those early illustrators and photographers who recorded their environments as well as earlier ones of the 18th, 19th; and 20th centuries. As shown herein, their depictions of architecture, interiors, furnishings, and costumes were of enormous value in providing a resource archive of the past.

And, finally, to our wonderful and talented artist and former interior design student: Chris Good. You did a great job!

Excerpt. © Reprinted by permission. All rights reserved.

This book was written primarily to fulfill a need in interior design education and in related design disciplines. We are not aware of another book that allows the reader to compare and contrast architecture, interiors, furniture, and decorative arts through many centuries. We have tried to interweave a design analysis language with that of art and architectural history. Our intent is to provide a flexible, easy-to-use, and well-organized resource for those with a variety of interests. An extensive reference list, glossary, and index are included.

Our primary audience is students in interior design programs. However, this book will also be of use to interior design practitioners, furniture designers, design consultants, design manufacturers, and theater/film set designers, as well as to students and professionals in the related fields of art history, architecture, material culture, museum studies, and history. It may also be of interest to historical/ preservation societies, craftspeople, design journalists, and laypeople interested in design.

The development of this book evolved over a number of years through our college teaching experiences. We, and our colleagues, were continually frustrated by the lack of adequate resources to support the desired content, context, and comprehensiveness of design history. All of our shared ideas were realized here as we worked on the scope, organization, and presentation of this material. We hope that this effort fulfills a need for you and future generations who find the study of design history exciting.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

This book has been an enormous endeavor and a formidable challenge. We would like to offer our grateful acknowledgment to those who provided valuable assistance through its development. Special thanks to each of you for all of your wonderful contributions!

To our Prentice Hall/Pearson Education support team who had faith in us and made the book happen: Vern Anthony, Judith Casino, Elizabeth Sugg, Linda Zuk, Denise Brown, and Patsy Fortney.

To our many students who inspired us to undertake this project: those who studied with Buie at Virginia Commonwealth University, the University of Texas at Austin, and North Texas State University; those who studied with Bridget at Marymount University, the University of Georgia at Athens, and Mississippi University for Women; and those who studied with Curt at Winthrop University, San Diego State University, and Washington State University.

To our educational institutions who in various ways supported our efforts: Virginia Commonwealth University, Marymount University, and Winthrop University.

To our friends who offered their expertise, support, resources, interest, and listening ears: Alice Burmeister, Peg De Lamiter, Laura Durfresne, George Fuller, Alan Huston, Dianne Jackman, Philip Moody, Ardis Rewerts, Nancy Templeman, and our family within the Interior Design Educators Council (IDEC).

To our special library resource friends: Carl Vuncannon and his staff at the Bernice Bienenstock Furniture Library in High Point, North Carolina, who opened that resource to us; Suzanne Freeman at the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts in Richmond, who provided a wealth of information; and Ray Bonis in Special Collections, Cabell Library at Virginia Commonwealth University, who provided valuable assistance.

To our individual family members who offered ongoing support, listened to complaints, and provided expertise when needed: Judy Sherman Endeman, Frith Harwood, Robert Harwood, Hope Harwood Liebke, Dottie May, and Henry May. To those early illustrators and photographers who recorded their environments as well as earlier ones of the 18th, 19th; and 20th centuries. As shown herein, their depictions of architecture, interiors, furnishings, and costumes were of enormous value in providing a resource archive of the past.

And, finally, to our wonderful and talented artist and former interior design student: Chris Good. You did a great job!

Users Review

From reader reviews:

Martin Song:

What do you regarding book? It is not important along? Or just adding material when you need something to explain what yours problem? How about your free time? Or are you busy particular person? If you don't have spare time to do others business, it is make you feel bored faster. And you have spare time? What did you do? Every individual has many questions above. They must answer that question because just their can do in which. It said that about reserve. Book is familiar on every person. Yes, it is right. Because start from on kindergarten until university need this kind of Architecture and Interior Design Through the 18th Century: An Integrated History to read.

Nancy Maxfield:

The book Architecture and Interior Design Through the 18th Century: An Integrated History has a lot info on it. So when you make sure to read this book you can get a lot of help. The book was authored by the very famous author. The writer makes some research prior to write this book. This book very easy to read you will get the point easily after looking over this book.

Charles Hopper:

Don't be worry should you be afraid that this book will probably filled the space in your house, you could have it in e-book way, more simple and reachable. That Architecture and Interior Design Through the 18th Century: An Integrated History can give you a lot of good friends because by you considering this one book you have thing that they don't and make a person more like an interesting person. This kind of book can be one of a step for you to get success. This reserve offer you information that maybe your friend doesn't know, by knowing more than various other make you to be great individuals. So , why hesitate? We should have Architecture and Interior Design Through the 18th Century: An Integrated History.

Ella Carlson:

Some individuals said that they feel uninterested when they reading a book. They are directly felt this when they get a half regions of the book. You can choose the particular book Architecture and Interior Design Through the 18th Century: An Integrated History to make your own reading is interesting. Your skill of reading ability is developing when you including reading. Try to choose basic book to make you enjoy to learn it and mingle the feeling about book and looking at especially. It is to be initial opinion for you to like to open up a book and go through it. Beside that the guide Architecture and Interior Design Through the 18th Century: An Integrated History can to be your new friend when you're really feel alone and confuse in what must you're doing of that time.

Download and Read Online Architecture and Interior Design
Through the 18th Century: An Integrated History By Buie
Harwood, Bridget May, Curt Sherman #DLCURX12BF9

Read Architecture and Interior Design Through the 18th Century: An Integrated History By Buie Harwood, Bridget May, Curt Sherman for online ebook

Architecture and Interior Design Through the 18th Century: An Integrated History By Buie Harwood, Bridget May, Curt Sherman Free PDF d0wnl0ad, audio books, books to read, good books to read, cheap books, good books, online books, books online, book reviews epub, read books online, books to read online, online library, greatbooks to read, PDF best books to read, top books to read Architecture and Interior Design Through the 18th Century: An Integrated History By Buie Harwood, Bridget May, Curt Sherman books to read online.

Online Architecture and Interior Design Through the 18th Century: An Integrated History By Buie Harwood, Bridget May, Curt Sherman ebook PDF download

Architecture and Interior Design Through the 18th Century: An Integrated History By Buie Harwood, Bridget May, Curt Sherman Doc

Architecture and Interior Design Through the 18th Century: An Integrated History By Buie Harwood, Bridget May, Curt Sherman Mobipocket

Architecture and Interior Design Through the 18th Century: An Integrated History By Buie Harwood, Bridget May, Curt Sherman EPub

DLCURX12BF9: Architecture and Interior Design Through the 18th Century: An Integrated History By Buie Harwood, Bridget May, Curt Sherman